

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR: NAVIGATING INFORMATIONAL TEXT

with DEBBIE ARECHIGA

The shifts in language arts instruction outlined in the Common Core State Standards - chiefly the need for students to read informational text and engage in academic conversations around these texts - will require all learners to know and apply a new range of strategies particular to this type of text. This training will provide teachers with both the knowledge and ability to use effective scaffolding strategies to support all students.

When:

June 9
Kindergarten-2nd
June 10
3rd-6th

Time:

8:30-3:00
8am Registration, Coffee,
& Snacks

Lunch on your own

More Info: 520.471.0877

Limited Spots Available

The participant will take a peek in real classrooms with video footage of students engaged in the reading and writing of informational texts. K-2 will explore the many strategies of approach (Interactive read-aloud, shared reading, guided reading and independent reading) for providing multiple opportunities of students to engage with informational texts. Some of the strategies to be addressed in the 3rd-6th session will include text structure, text features and academic vocabulary. Additionally, there will be a segment addressing “cloze reading” with tools for creating text dependent questions and crafting written responses closely tied to the text.
